

Ms. Elaine Currie
926 Cedar Ln
Northbrook, IL 60062-3540

Dear Elaine,

Congratulations! On behalf of Vanderbilt University's Peabody College, I am writing to inform you that you have been granted admission to the master's program in Higher Education Administration. Your admission reflects your strong academic credentials, commitment to learning, fit with the mission of the Peabody community, and your breadth of impactful experiences. This offer of admission is for study in the department of Leadership, Policy, and Organizations beginning in Fall 2020.

I am pleased to offer you the Dean's Tuition Scholarship (DTS) which will cover 50% of your tuition for professional study at Vanderbilt University's Peabody College of education and human development. Please be sure to read more details about your award after the signature line of this letter.

To help you start envisioning your experience here in Nashville at Vanderbilt's Peabody College, I'd like to point out several aspects of the "Peabody Difference":

- First, Peabody College has a rich history and is recognized as one of the top Graduate Schools of Education and Human Development in the nation.
- Second, faculty prioritize student mentorship and teaching, while conducting advanced research in their fields. Findings from research will inform your studies.
- Third, Peabody Career Services partners with students to achieve their desired initial career goal. Last year, 97% of graduate professional students were employed in their area of expertise within six months of graduation.
- Fourth, you will be part of a community of students and alumni where excellence is the norm.
- Last, Nashville is one of the fastest-growing cities in the United States, with a diverse and growing local economy, creating many partnerships and employment opportunities for the Vanderbilt community.

Your program in Higher Education Administration will prepare you for a professional role in colleges and universities, state education agencies, or related nonprofits. Your coursework and practicum will ready you for a variety of careers in the contemporary higher education system. Your program director is Professor Brenda McKenzie (brenda.l.mckenzie@vanderbilt.edu), and your graduate admissions coordinator is Ms. Rosie Moody (rosie.moody@vanderbilt.edu or 615-322-8019).

Please mark your calendar for Welcome Weekend, March 27-28, 2020 and New Student Orientation, August 24-25, 2020. Welcome Weekend is entirely optional. The event is designed for your convenience simply as an opportunity for a first-hand look at Vanderbilt University's Peabody College. More information will be sent via email about both of these events as the dates get closer.

We ask that you respond to this offer of admission by April 15, 2020 using the online Student Response Form at the top of your application status page. Acceptance of this offer signifies that you have read and agree to comply with all your scholarship terms and conditions. Furthermore, accepting this award requires payment of a $250 non-refundable tuition deposit. The deposit will secure your place in the incoming class and will be credited to your student account and applied to your tuition upon enrollment. Your acceptance of admission is not complete until this deposit is paid. Please visit the Admitted Students Website for important information, including an enrollment checklist, about your offer of admission.

The Peabody community holds in deep regard the safety and integrity of all on our campus. As such, should you accept this offer of admission you agree to undergo a criminal background check before classes begin and to abide by the Peabody Honor Code. If you have any questions or concerns about these, please contact Peabody Graduate Admissions at peabody.admissions@vanderbilt.edu.

Again, congratulations! You are an impressive candidate and I very much hope you will accept our offer of admission. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Director of Graduate Admissions, Kim Brazil (kim.brazil@vanderbilt.edu), your Admissions Coordinator, or your Program Director. We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Camilla P. Benbow, Ed.D.
